Kingston Exposition Biggest and Best Ever

Already More Exhibits Are Signed Up Than Ever Before, With Only Half the Prospects Interviewed—Pet Show Promises to Be a Great Attraction.

"It is going big this year," said Louis S. Coe, secretary of the Kingston Chamber of Commerce, when asked about the Kingston Exposition which is to be held September 10 to 18 on the Fair Grounds. "At the last exposition there were 57 exhibits and already this year we have applications for 63 spaces but as yet have been able to call on about half of the concerns which are likely to take space. I estimate conservatively that the number of booths this year will run to 75, which will make it the largest Exposition Kingston has ever had."

The diversity of exhibits this year will be much greater than ever before and it is most encouraging that many Kingston manufacturers and merchants who have never before taken advantage of this method of reaching the people of Kingston and the adjacent countryside have come in this year and in some instances taken more than one booth.

The list of exhibitors who have already signed applications is as follows:

Everett & Treadwell Co., Kingston Lumber Corp., Kingston Gas & Electric Co., Wesley Gregory, Forth & Davis Motor Co., Inc., Valentin Hargrave, Inc., Aaron Cohen, Peter A. Black, Sulliff, Inc., Kingston Bakers, George J. Schryver Motor Car Co., The Fessenden Shirt Co., Inc., Kingston Trust Co., Lorillard Hat Co., Rose, Gorman & Co., Rose, Stuyvesant Garage, William R. Kraft, Herman La Tour, Jacob Forest Packing Co., James Millard & Son Co., Southard-Belcher, Inc., H. B. Merritt, Cobleskill Milling Co., C. A. Warren, New York Tel. Co., Independent Retail Merchants' Association, W. J. McGrath, William Davis Hawk, Van Kleef Motor & Garage, Inc., Southern Cotton Oil-Trading Co., F. B. Matthews & Co., Homer C. Kuhlmann, Inc., Pennington Studio, Kingston Sign Painting Co., The Van Motor Co., Inc., J. R. Bennett, William C. Schryver, S. Cohen & Sons, Uster County Ice & Coal Corp., Frank R. Schoonmaker, Frank L. Brown, Raymond Conway & Co., Borst & Burhans Co., Standard Auto Co. of New York, Byrne Bros., Frederick Winters.

A number of the above have taken several spaces each, the highest being four, which gives an exhibit 40 feet long.

There have already been many applications for entry blanks in the Pet Show contest. These blanks may be obtained at the Chamber of Commerce, or will be mailed in response to a post card request giving the address of the person wishing them.

With only about half of the prospective booth holders already seen it is obvious that the Exposition will be a large and interesting one as there will be a large number of unusual exhibits and many of these will be working exhibits which always create deep interest.

WHY WEATHER PROPHETS ARE WITHOUT HONOR

Early in the summer weather prophets began to predict that this was going to be a summer without any warm weather. The prophecy, however, did not hold good as the country has already experienced some of the hottest days on record.

During the month of July, there were some weather prophets began to get again, this time with predictions that this was going to be a summer without rain. The month of August, however, has apparently refuted that prophecy also.

During August, up to and including today, Kingston has had but nine absolutely rainless days. All of the rest of the days have been cloudy with rain falling at some time or other during the day. During the past two weeks there have been but two clear days.

All of which goes to prove that it is wise who resists any desire to prophesy about the weather.

Gang War Mystery At Fleischmanns

Big Time at Midnight But Nobody Seems to Know What It Was All About or What Happened.

Four men, summer residents of the village of Fleischmanns, who hail from New York City, are under arrest charged with assault, second degree, in creating a disturbance in the village about midnight Saturday. The four were placed under arrest by state troopers following an investigation of the affair and when arraigned Monday evening before Justice of the Peace Mayes they were held in $1,000 bail each.

Just what happened is not definitely known but it is alleged that there is some feud between two gangs in the village and about midnight the two gangs met in the village and it is reported that there was an argument and finally gun play in which one of the men arrested is said to have used a gun. No one was injured. From what the people of the village pick up the two gangs, one four men and the other five men, met in the village and an argument followed. The argument lasted some fifteen minutes and during that time the gun play was staged.

The fight attracted a crowd and there was great excitement in the village. During the affair someone called the state troopers but when the officers arrived they found the two gangs had disappeared.

However, an investigation was immediately taken up by the officers and by efficient work the troopers located the four men Monday and placed them under arrest on an assault charge.

Monday evening a hearing was held before Justice Mayes at 7 o'clock and the four men were held in $1,000 bail each for a further hearing on September 2. Those arrested were Leo Schiff, Benny Steinhardt, George Weinberg and Sam Sterling all of whom have been in Fleischmanns since Decoration Day but are residents of New York.

During the affair, which stirred the villagers to great excitement, no one apparently was able to learn just what the trouble was or what started it and the troopers and county officials have found it difficult to get information. Sergeant Cunningham of Woodstock and other troopers stationed in Ulster county were summoned to the village to assist in the investigation and they are still at the scene.

Some allege that the trouble arose between two factions, one from the village and the other from New York City. The investigation is being continued.

Customs Patrol Gets 107 Bottles

New Customs Patrol Makes First Raids at Hoboken Pier—One Man Trying to Get Away Drops Eleven Bottles.

New York, Aug. 24 (AP).—The first raids of the new customs patrol were made early today at the Hoboken piers netting a round up of 107 bottles of liquor.

The freighter, Pipe Stone County, operated by the Cosmopolitan Steamship Company, was boarded by men from the patrol boat Surveyor. The bootleggers had received a warning from a lookout and fled as the customs men opened fire with their revolvers. One of the fleeing men dropped eleven bottles to the pavement, breaking them.

Another raid, conducted under Inspector Cawley, was made at Pier 1, Hoboken, in connection with suspicious movements of men on the deck of the American Diamond Liner Eastern Dawn. A coast guard cutter stood off the end of the pier, while six men under Inspector Cawley boarded the ship from land.

When Cawley and his men reached the ship the bootleggers and the sailors with whom they were trafficking had disappeared. In most stacks, they carefully wrapped bottles of liquor were found all ready to be lowered from the deck to a waiting craft below. The 107 bottles were seized.

Barr said he was forced off the road by another car and ran into a ditch where his car turned over and was badly wrecked. Both men are quite badly hurt.

Salad King's Wife Dies in Wisconsin

Venice Romance Which United Two Large Fortunes Comes to an End—Salad King Divorced First Wife in Mexico City—Both Parties Involved in Considerable Litigation.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 21 (AP).—A romance which began in Venice and united two fortunes, which subsequently were involved in considerable litigation, has come to an end in the death in Mexico City of Mrs. John F. Howard, second wife of the millionaire salad dressing manufacturer of Haverhill, Mass.

Mrs. Howard, who formerly was Mrs. Eleanor B. Phillip, widow of Frank B. Phillip, wealthy head of a large Milwaukee lithographing company, died Sunday in the American Hospital of double pneumonia and spinal meningitis.

$125,000 Damage Action Started.

This week, Mrs. Howard was to have been summoned before the American consul at Mexico City, for questioning by a Milwaukee attorney in a $125,000 damage action started April 28, in Milwaukee circuit court, by Mrs. Margaret Howard, former wife of the 72-year-old mayonnaise manufacturer.

Mrs. Howard of Massachusetts alleged the wealthy Milwaukee widow had "enticed" the "salad dressing king" to Mexico City, where he obtained a divorce from his wife of thirty-three years, to marry the widow.

Salad King Faced Suit.

Besides the damage action, in Milwaukee, against the second Mrs. Howard, Mr. Howard was facing a suit in the Essex county, Massachusetts courts, brought by his wife, for separation maintenance and alimony. She attached his property there to the extent of $100,000.

Romance Began in Venice.

The romance which united the Milwaukee widow, who inherited her husband's fortune in 1921, and the Massachusetts millionaire began when they met in Venice, while they both were on a trip around the world. Mr. Howard visited in Milwaukee in the summer of 1925, and last January Mrs. Phillip closed her home here telling friends she was going to South America.

The same month news despatches reported that Howard had divorced his wife in Mexico City and had married Mrs. Phillip.

Some Sex Father.

The divorce and remarriage was responsible for litigation between Howard and his two sons, who alleged perjury and bigamy and demanded that the manufacturer make a financial settlement with their mother.

QUESTION STUDENT IN REGARD TO GIRL'S DEATH

Cleveland, Aug. 24 (AP).—A sophomore student in the medical school at Western Reserve University was being questioned today about the death of Dorothy Kirk, 21, who police believe was a victim of drugs given her for experimental purposes.

The detectives found half a bushel basket full of drugs under the student's bed. Some were of the most deadly poisons, they assert.

City Chemist Knapp will make an analysis of the pills found in Miss Kirk's room and compare them with similar pills in the suspect's collection. Two of the tablets, already analyzed, reveal that they were "love" pills, it is said.

RELATIVES OF DOROTHY KIRK, whose mysterious death is being investigated in Cleveland, today expressed the opinion that the girl unwittingly had been drawn into a narcotic ring, first having been induced to use narcotics.

According to the story of William Jackson, the girl's uncle, Miss Kirk was to have been used to promote the sale of drugs.

SEVERELY WOUNDED WHEN HIS REVOLVER FALLS.

Nelson Ballant of East Windham is in the Kingston City Hospital suffering from a bullet wound in his chest, the result of an accidental shooting at his home on Saturday.

Ballant was removed to the hospital here following first aid treatment by Dr. H. H. Walker of Windham. His condition today was reported as fair.

The young man was said to have been carrying a .38 caliber revolver in a holster strapped about his waist. The revolver slipped out as he was leaning over, fell over onto a rock in such a manner that the cartridge exploded and the bullet entered his breast.

Restraints Use of Voting Machines

Supreme Court Justice Grants Injunction to Prevent Installation of Three Thousand Voting Machines in New York City—Mrs. Knapp Purchased Machines.

New York, Aug. 24 (AP).—Three thousand voting machines ordered for the city of New York by Mrs. Florence E. S. Knapp, secretary of state, will be idle in the November elections, unless an injunction granted by Supreme Court Justice Crain is voided by the court of appeals by that time.

The injunction was granted yesterday on application of Adolph Hill as a taxpayer, to prevent fulfillment of a contract with the Automatic Registering Company, Jamestown, N. Y., for installation of the machines at $848.65.

In his decision Justice Crain upheld the contention of the plaintiff's counsel that Mrs. Knapp had violated the city charter and that the voting machines could have been purchased for less. He specifically stated, however, that Mrs. Knapp's motives were not involved.

City Controller Berry was named a defendant in the action, but the municipal government did not oppose granting the injunction, in fact it has consistently fought introduction of the voting machines.

An assistant attorney general represented Mrs. Knapp, who let the contract for the voting machines under terms of a law enacted by the legislature four years ago, which requested her to do so upon failure of the city officials to supply the machines within a given period.

BERLINS WANT TO BE "LEFT ALONE"

Famous Composer of Popular Songs and Wife Will Leave for New York—Berlins Plays "Hotten Game of Golf."

Alexandria Bay, N. Y., Aug. 24 (AP).—"I'm at peace with the world and you."

Quoting the words of one of his own popular songs, Irving Berlins described his mental attitude and suggested that he would appreciate being "left alone."

"We only want a chance to be happy and to be left alone," he declared, referring to himself and his wife who was Ellen Vachay, former New York society girl.

The Berlins, who are staying at the cottage of Max Winlow on the St. Lawrence near here, made preparations for departure for New York, probably this evening. They will not enter the city, it became known today that Mrs. Berlins was rather fatigued by their automobile trip Sunday from Quebec to Alexandria Bay, because of the fact that the Berlins will probably motor to Watkinson and take the night train for New York from there.

Mrs. Berlins has left within the past few days her arrival. Mr. Berlins has passed the time fishing with Mr. Winlow and playing golf on the nine-hole course of the Alexandria Bay Golf Club.

"I played a rotten game," was his comment on the latter diversion.

Picnic Chairmen Expresses Thanks

To the Editor of The Freeman:
Sir:—As chairman of the Ulster County Farm and Home Bureau and Chamber of Commerce picnic committee, I wish to take this means of thanking all those who so generously gave their time, thought and muscle to make the picnic of 1926 so great a success, even though the day was stormy.

One of the outstanding features of the occasion was the wonderful support and cooperation given by the city of Kingston, its business men, Driving and Riding Club, hotels and newspapers. I also wish to express my appreciation of the beautiful floats sent by the various communities. I want to express my sincere gratitude to every committee chairman, and their assistants. The splendid enthusiasm and cooperation shown all along the line puts Ulster county in the lead again when it comes to picnics.

H. M. EPPES,
Chairman Picnic Committee.

Telephone Wires Gain Notably.

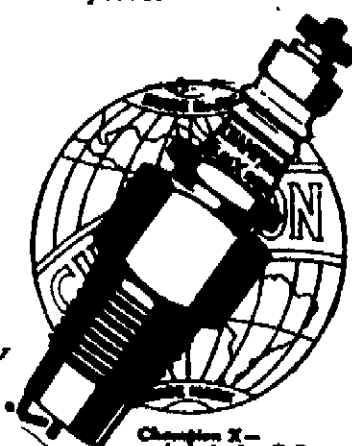

In connection with the recent stock issue of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., we find the same was offered to 371,000 stockholders, which was 7 per cent more than the company had at the time of its previous offering back in 1924. This company is the outstanding telephone company of the world, and it is an appropriate time now to look at the way that the number of miles of telephone wire in the U. S. have gained during the past 10 years.

Back in 1915 there was less than 7 million miles of telephone wire in the U. S. The first of the present year saw approximately 52 million miles. The amount has almost doubled during the past 5 years alone.

CLINTON PRISON SPUDS.

If a noted criminal should escape from Clinton Prison at Dannemora, temporary home of some of our most distinguished violators of the law, or if one of the most desperate of those incarcerated should dispatch a guard or some other official with a broad knife, the information with regard to the escape or attack would be flashed over the country and would find its place on the front pages of the newspapers.

Charles Sturges, farm superintendent at Clinton Prison, however, last year in a potato contest under the supervision of the bureau of state institution farms of the Department of Farms and Markets, through careful management and cultivation, produced 466 bushels of potatoes on an acre of land, the value of which at the existing price was $1,317.50. This might be classed as an important constructive accomplishment.

While the item giving information of Mr. Sturges' feat was given generous treatment in many newspapers in the northern part of the state, it was given little attention in the larger cities. Some idea of the importance of this large production of potatoes per acre may be gleaned from the fact that the average production in New York state in 1924 was 140 bushels per acre and in 1925, 87 bushels per acre.

In the potato contest arranged by Director Charles H. Baldwin the farms connected with state institutions were contestants. These farms produce a considerable proportion of the food consumed by the wards of the state. The Clinton Prison farm was the winner of the contest last year and, as a result, Mr. Sturges was declared president of the State Institution Potato Club. He was also awarded a cup which was presented by Commissioner Pyke.

Again this year arrangements have been made for the potato contest in which the state institution farms will compete. Potato culture has been given special attention by Mr. Baldwin and the assistants in his bureau. It is reported once again that the potatoes on the farm supervised by Mr. Sturges at Clinton Prison are showing up wonderfully well and that there are indications that the other institution farms will have to exceed his record of 466 bushels of last year to carry away the blue ribbon in the 1926 contest.

There is this about fire, when it is loose, you cannot whistle it back again. Unless it is stayed by enormous toll of men, or halted by natural obstacles, or drenched by rain, it will burn until it no longer finds materials for consumption. Look at the ghosts of trees that rise from old scars on our mountains where forest fires have been. Nature will replant, but slowly. Men who were careless with fire put to naught her toll of a century. Be careful with fire, and then be more careful than ever. All this greenery, this coolness, this delightful beauty, may be blackened and made hideous by a single careless act. The homes and industries of tomorrow may never be, if so much as a spark falls in midsummer tinder. Be careful with fire. You cannot whistle it back.

A large Eastern telephone company recently sent a questionnaire to its subscribers, which actually invited them to "kick" if they had any complaint about the service. Out of several hundred thousand subscribers, only 3,500 were moved to reply. Hence, it can be pretty safely assumed that there was little dissatisfaction with the service. Of the 3,500 who replied, 73 per cent found no fault, and many actually complimented the service. The remainder of replies covered a wide variety of comment, questions and criticism, from which the company has been able to correct some difficulties and make improvements. This is real service to the customer such as was not dreamed of by industry and business a few short years ago.

Conviction is growing that the strike has become an outdoor camp. The failure of the New York railway strike, following closely upon the collapse of the spectacular general strike in Great Britain and the recent unsuccessful coal strike in our own country, is evidence of a new industrial era. Such good as it was able to accomplish has been secured, and the world is moving on. The strike is a relic of the time when men used violence as a substitute for intelligence. Laboring men realize that there must be a better way, and the leaders of both labor and industry who fall back upon such obsolete methods as the strike and the lock-out, do not show sufficient intelligence to lead.

 NOISE ZONES.

As you know most of our larger cities have what are called postal zones, so that when you address a letter to a certain street you are requested to add to the address the number of the postal zone or district. Something similar has been made for New York city from the noise standpoint. There are silent places, districts with say 40 per cent of noise level, others with 60, 80, and up to 100 per cent, and still others at certain periods of the day when the average noise level is exceeded. This is the first time that any such complete observation has been made of noise as a nuisance.

And so having learned the average noise intensity, different localities in New York are now known and numbered in accordance therewith. It was learned that street traffic is the greatest source of noise, and that heavy automobile trucks were the worst offenders.

Of course, the horse drawn wagons are about as noisy as trucks, and surface street cars are in the same class.

Business corners are more noisy than half way down the block.

The front rooms of city houses received the most noise. The brain workers, or those whose work required concentration of mind, found that the back rooms were essential for good work.

In other words, the front of the house is ten to thirty times as noisy as the back, which simply means that city noise is practically all street noise.

The next move will be the classification of these noises as to their bad effects upon the brain, and health of individual.

These noises that can be prevented by some thought and effort will be gradually removed from our city streets.

The actual loss to health and business from "preventable din" will likewise be estimated. Because, as mentioned once before, every noise that strikes your ears is registered by the brain and the brain becomes fatigued just as it does from registering thoughts or other impressions.

You are bound to be more tired at night, when you work where it is noisy.

So the time will likely come then, that when a real estate man wishes to sell you a house, he will not only refer to its rooms, street, surroundings and so forth, but will tell you that its noise standard is so many points below the noise level of the city.

This is not just "fancy", but real facts, because engineers are working on the problem.

Lord Amherst Defeated French in Their Last Stand Against English at Ogdensburg, August 24, 1760.

The first settlement in what is now St. Lawrence County was made by Francis Picquet, a French Sulpician, who established an Indian mission at the mouth of the Oswegatchie in October, 1743, and styled it "La Presentation."

This place became a French military station, and a magazine for supplying expeditions sent to their southwestern posts; and from this point were fitted out many of the parties that ravaged the frontier settlements of New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia.

To insure the friendship of the Six Nations, Gallissouire, Governor of Canada, proceeded in 1754 to establish an Indian mission on the southern bank of the St. Lawrence. He hoped to draw in so many Iroquois converts as would bind all their kindred to the French alliance.

In 1759 an island three miles down the river, called by the Indians "Oranconton," and by the French "Isle Royal," was taken possession of by the French and strongly fortified. This is the first island below the present city of Ogdensburg, and is since called Chimney Island, from the ruins still visible.

This work was named Fort Lewis; and here the last French resistance was made against the English, in 1760.

Lord Jeffrey Amherst invested Fort Lewis August 18, 1760, when the first division of his army, consisting of the grenadiers, two battalions of light infantry, a brigade of regulars, Schuyler's regiment, many Indians with Sir William Johnson, three row galleys and some field artillery, proceeded down the north shore, commanded by the general himself. They passed the fort and took possession of Gallip and Picquet Islands, which the French abandoned with great haste, leaving a number of scalp, many tools and utensils and some iron behind them.

The Indians were so angry at finding the scalp, that they fired all their weapons, not sparing even the chapel.

At the time the first division moved, the second division, composed of a brigade of regulars, Lyman's regiment, two ranging companies, the remainder of the Indians, and two row galleys, under command of Colonel Malmidan, marched down to the south coast, and took post opposite the fort, where they were not exposed to fire from the cannon.

The vessels also sailed down the middle of the river between the two divisions.

Brigadier General Gage with the rest of the army and artillery remained at Oswegatchie as the reserve.

Soon as the movement was discovered, M. Pouchet, the commander of the post, opened a spirited fire during which ten of the English force were killed. By eleven o'clock at night the blockade of the fort was complete.

The following day General Amherst and aides reconnoitered the fort and surrounding region, and mounted heavy artillery at points of advantage.

On the morning of the fifth day the batteries opened with telling effect. When the vessels were to have assisted but contrary winds prevented this cooperation and the fort was not stormed by the grenadiers as planned.

On August 24, the guns of the French were dismantled by the superior force of the English, and M. Pouchet, after displaying as much gallantry as could be expected in his situation, capitulated for his garrison, and they became prisoners of war.

The English captured eight officers and 231 men. The French lost thirteen killed and thirty-five wounded. Fort Lewis mounted thirty-five cannons of different calibre, all of which fell into the hands of Colonel Malmidan and the three companies.

On receiving the welcome news of the surrender of Isle Royal Governor Cadwallader Colden issued a proclamation dated "Fort George, in the city of New York, the fourth day of September, 1760, etc." calling upon the people resident on the Mohawk River who had left their improvements on account of the Indian and French incursions to return and gather their harvests.

On their voyage down the river from this place to Montreal, the English lost in the rapids forty-six batons, seventeen whaleboats, and eighty-four men. Isle Royal was occupied but a short time, and the works soon fell into ruins.

Because there are those who mentally associate supremacy in quality of merchandise with high prices, it is assumed by some persons that STOCK & CORDTS is high priced.

When this misunderstanding exists it invariably occurs because price comparison has not been made.

The following notice of meeting to discuss the tuberculosis testing of cattle in the town of Marlborough has been mailed to all cattle owners in the town whose names and addresses could be learned:

To the cattle owners in the town of Marlborough.

Dear Sir:

At the request of several dairymen in the town of Marlborough, I am calling a public meeting at the Grange Hall in Stone Ridge for Thursday evening, August 26th, at 8 o'clock, standard time.

The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the question of the tuberculosis testing of all herds in this town on the area basis plan.

Millard Davis, president of the County Accredited Herd Association, directors of the Association and Dr. H. F. Fleming, veterinarian, will be in attendance. Every cattle owner in the town should attend this meeting.

Yours very truly,
 F. M. WIGSTEN.

Herds in this town have already been tested, a part of them before the area plan was inaugurated and the others in order to comply with the Kingston city milk ordinance changes which become effective September 1.

In order for others in Marlborough to have their herds tested it is necessary to continue the work on the area plan.

After sickness and when children are run down, pale and weak, nothing seems to help so much as the vitalizing vitamins in McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets.

Mr. E. H. Alvey, pharmacist, of Clinton, Ill., writes as follows:

"Gentlemen: Enclosed check to balance account to date. Also order for 12 boxes McCoy's TABLETS. My little girl (7 years old) had the measles and was very much run down. We started her on McCoy's and she has gained 6 pounds in thirty days. The other morning she and her mother overtook and overtaken a horse and rider and they did not have time to eat breakfast before going to school. She said home at noon, starving and said to her mother, 'Mother, you will have to get me up in time for breakfast or stop feeding the McCoy's.' Sixty-second cod liver oil tablets for six months at druggists everywhere. Try them for 30 days and if they do not help your ailing child, money back. Ask for McCoy's."

SAYS DANGEROUS VARICOSE VEINS CAN BE REDUCED AT HOME

Sub Gently and Upward Toward the Heart as Blood in Veins Flows That Way.

If you or any relative or friend is worried because of varicose veins, or because of the best advice that anyone in this world can give you is to ask your druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength) and apply night and morning to the swollen, enlarged veins. Soon you will notice that they are growing smaller and the treatment should be continued until the veins are of normal size. So penetrating and powerful is Emerald Oil that even Phlebs are quickly absorbed. Wm. F. Dedrick's sells lots of it.

The KITCHEN CABINET

(By 1926, Western Newspaper Union.)

The highest duty of the state is to legislate and minister as to make good homes, for it is only a larger home, and for the same reason that the state exists.—Ellen Richards.

SEASONABLE FOODS

There is probably no meal of the day where dainty service and pretty dishes are more appreciated than at the morning meal. We hear much about starting the day right and it is very important.

A hurried breakfast over an untidy table may be the cause of many of the unhappy experiences of life. Start the day right with a neat table, well-cooked food and a cheerful smile. Fruit is the first dish which appeals to most in the morning. Whenever possible fresh green foliage of the fruit itself is the prettiest garnish. After the fruit comes the morning cereal. As there are already hundreds of them to cook or serve uncooked, variety is always present. The whole wheat as it comes from the granary is an ideal breakfast food for all ages. Wash it well and soak overnight, then cook all day or until every grain is burst and covered with the gelatinous center of the grain. Serve with top milk or cream. A quantity cooked at once will keep for several days if kept in a cold place.

Fried Chicken, Southern Style.—Joint a fat young chicken, dredge with flour, salt and pepper and place on a platter. In a deep frying pan fry out a half-pound of bacon, add one cupful of lard and when smoking hot lay in the chicken; turn when brown, giving the thicker pieces longer time to cook. Place on a hot platter and garnish with water cress.

Breakfast Muffins.—Beat one egg, add one-half cupful of milk, flour with two teaspoonsful of baking powder to make a soft batter, then add two tablespoonsful of melted butter and pour into well-greased muffin tins to bake in a moderate oven.

Blueberry Cake.—Cream a tablespoonful of butter, add one cupful of sugar and when well blended add two well-beaten eggs. Beat five minutes, add a teaspoonful of vanilla, a few gratings of nutmeg, two teaspoonsful of baking powder, sifted with two cupfuls of flour; add a pint of well-floured blueberries and bake in a loaf or in muffin pans.

On Fashions

PLAIDS ADOPTED IN A HALF-HEARTED MANNER IN THE DOG DAYS, TAKE ON GREATER INTEREST ESPECIALLY IN DEGRADE EFFECTS.

Any lurking prejudice that might have existed concerning plaids has been overcome. They have been important to some extent all summer and loom large upon the horizon of September. One hears of ever so many well-turned-out women affecting tailcoats, the skirts of which, if not actually plaided, are checked, and the short, jaunty jackets plain.

One sees the smartest sort of two-piece wool frocks in bright plaids awaiting the moment to be shown in shop windows, and one finds many top-coats with a distinctly Scottish air. Plaids, of course, are not restricted to woollens; they are, as a matter of fact, frequently of chiffon or georgette. What makes them most interesting of all is that the present worthy practice of using two materials where one might serve, makes it possible for the woman who should not wear plaid to do so, if it is judiciously tempered by a plain material.

An Early Autumn Frock, of a Loosely Woven Plaid Fabric in Beige and Putty, Sponsors a Bloused Jumper Belted at the Top of the Hips and a Skirt with Plaids.

Speaking of materials, a clever style expert just back from Paris echoes a warning against smooth surfaced materials, or, rather, shiny ones. She believes that dull-surfaced crepes and soft-faced woollens will be the fall preferences, and cites a shade dubbed mastic as of prime importance, this being a tan which more nearly approaches putty in tone than the rosy shade familiar under the name of bois de rose.

It is, of course, an open secret that the world will wear red this autumn. The smartest element has already relinquished it, since red is the sort of thing that can be violently overdone. Smart women are selecting purple again and show no disposition to relinquish greens, even while taking blue back to their hearts and humming the Parisian frenzy for negro entertainers, which has brought about a strong preference for African colorings and rather primitive motifs.

Tagging Major League Bases

(By The Associated Press.)
There was a rainbow behind the clouds that poured moisture on the gullant St. Louis Cardinals and their visitors, the Boston Braves yesterday.

After struggling valiantly for the past two weeks to oust the Pittsburgh Pirates from the lead in the National League, the men of Hornsby sat back and watched mother nature, with the aid of Brooklyn, turn the trick for them. Today the St. Louis clan is perched on the pinnacle, although the margin that separates it from the smoketown warriors is less than a point.

More distasteful to the Pirates, perhaps, than the loss of first place, was the carefree manner in which their old field boss, Max Carey, contributed to the downfall. His speed and batting power, clothed in an enemy uniform for the first time in 17 years, enabled Brooklyn to take the first game of a double header, 7 to 3. Max made two clean hits, walked once and scored two runs, and the home town fans roared their approval as the deposed captain celebrated his first appearance with Brooklyn in lustrous fashion. He failed to appear in the second game.

Although the Pirates unlimbered their heavy artillery in the second and hammered Ehrhardt and Williams for 10 runs while the opposition gathered but two from the crooked slants of Southpaw Yde, the damage had been done and the Cardinals looked through the rain at visitors of their first pennant.

Meanwhile the Cincinnati Reds added another thorn to the New York Giants' crown. With the McGraw aggregation enjoying a 6 to 3 lead in the last of the ninth by virtue of Hot Greenfield's excellent pitching, the Reds came to life and tied the game through the Giants' mental lapses. They then went out at the tenth and hammered home a winning marker on Walker's single, a pass, and Pipp's ringing double, thus maintaining a position just half a game behind the leaders.

Cincinnati has struggled through 16 innings to win three games. Saturday they played the Braves to a 1-1 tie in 14 innings and Sunday defeated Boston in a doubleheader with contests going to extra frames.

The hammering Yankees stretched their lead to 10 full games in the American League, nosing out Cleveland 3 to 2, despite Lavan's classy hitting. Shocker kept the seven innings hits well scattered.

Marberry's famous relief act aided for Washington against St. Louis when he uncorked a wild throw in the eighth inning that threw the way for four enemy runs. He was obliged to stand by and watch a four run deadlock turn in an 8 to 4 St. Louis victory.

The Athletics took their second straight game from Chicago, 4 to 1. Howard Ehmke holding the westerners in check. Another rookie flamed brilliantly in the Athletic outfield, the new find, Alex Metzler, cutting off three runs by a spectacular leaping catch off Falk in the eighth.

Fothergill, Hellmann and Blue led a vicious Tiger assault that snowed under the Boston Red Sox, 9 to 1. Three Boston twirlers went down in the melee, while Rip Collins held the Bostonians to eight hits.

Police to Play Ball Wednesday

The big baseball game between the Kingston police force and that of Newburgh will be staged at the Kingston Fair Grounds on Wednesday afternoon. The game will be called at 2:30 o'clock. The J. O. U. A. M. Band will render a concert before the game and will also play during the game. The last time Newburgh was here Kingston was defeated, but this season the Kingston police expect to turn the tables on the Hilly City police.

REPORT A. C. STREAN
BROKEN BY K. OF C.

The winning streak of the Ronsont A. C. which had reached four straight games, was broken by the K. of C. Club at Ronsont Park Monday night. The Knights taking a 16 to 0 game. Steve Connolly and Volker divided the pitching for the K. of C., each twirling three innings, the game being called at the end of the sixth. Steve Connolly hit the three frames, scored and Jim the same number. Other struck out four men. The Knights collected 15 safeties off Connolly the Ronsont hurler. Hoffmeyer finding him for three hits. The Pittsburgh and Darrick set two hits. Hoffman leading off in the bottom hitting the first ball over centerfielder's head for a home run. Every player on the Casey Club a hit.

The K. of C. Club will meet the Ronsont Club in a morning and afternoon game at that place on Labor Day. Connolly is said to have a strong chance to win. Should the home team take one or both of the contests they are promised several other good bookings in that section.

Two Fast Bouts At Next Smoker

Seven bouts, with two headliners are scheduled to be staged at the Fair Grounds next Tuesday evening. There will be two six round matches and five four round scraps. There will also be a battle royal.

In the main affairs, Vince Hart of East Kingston will meet Young Pike of Newburgh. Pike is heralded as a tough youngster, who, it is expected, will give the East Kingston flash a hard tussle.

Charlie Fisher and Kid McVey of Newburgh will be seen in action in the other feature attraction. These boys fought at the 156th Field Artillery camp last week, the bout ending in a draw. This second meeting of the boxers is looked forward to by many, who saw the bout at the military camp.

Former Champ Wins Tennis Title

Mrs. Mollie Mallory, former women's tennis champion, won the title once again at Forest Hills, Long Island on Monday afternoon when before a crowd of 3,000 she fought her way to a spectacular triumph over Miss Elizabeth Ryan of California. Miss Ryan had been favored to win before the battle. Mrs. Mallory triumphed by scores of 4-6, 6-4, 9-7.

Trailing at 0-4 in the final set, in which she was within a single stroke of defeat in the fourteenth game, the New York woman threw the large gallery into a frenzy of delight as she fought her way through four games in a row. Miss Ryan wilted before the devastating attack. The Californian fought desperately through seven more games to hold off Mrs. Mallory but the former champion brought the play to a climax by breaking through service and winning her own game for the set at 9-7 and the match.

Mrs. Mallory's victory on Monday marked the seventh time that she has won the national title.

More Swimmers Foiled by Channel

Six Would-be Conquerors Turned Back Within Past 24 Hours—Unfavorable Weather Conditions Likely to Bring Channel Activities to an End.

Dover, England, Aug. 24 (AP).—The turbulent English Channel, which has turned back five would-be conquerors within the past 24 hours, today turned back another swimmer.

Jane Darwin, an English girl, starting from Dover on her first cross-channel attempt, was forced to quit because of rough water shortly after she had cleared the harbor this morning.

Because of continuing unfavorable conditions it is considered doubtful if there will be much more channel activity this year. Yesterday's dash seems to have been a sort of last hope on the part of at least some of the big contingent of half-fledged swimmers who have been longing to emulate the feat of Gertrude Ederle.

Cape Gris-Nez, France, Aug. 24 (AP).—A German named Vierkoeten, and a Frenchman named Ledrant, early today failed in their attempt to swim the English Channel. Their failures followed those yesterday of Miss Clara Belle Barrett, Miss Lilian Cannon, American, and Otto Kemmerich, another German.

Ledrant was forced to quit after only a short time in the water, while the German acquitted himself the best of any of the five. He kept swimming for ten hours, but his tug lost its way in a heavy fog not far from the wooden sands off the coast of England, and he was taken from the water.

Regan Is Playing Great Ball

Any fan who has had the pleasure of watching Second Baseman Regan of the Boston Red Sox in action on the field will understand why he is so well liked in Beantown. He is playing better ball with each game.

BASEBALL NOTES

It costs the major leagues about $200,000 a year to maintain its staff of umpires.

Pitchers of the New York Yankees now wear catchers shin guards in batting practice.

All a golfer like Bobby Jones has to know in the way of arithmetic is the numbers up to 72.

On September 9, 1922, William (Baby Doll) Jacobson of the St. Louis Browns made three three-base hits.

Dave Barber, home run king of the Piedmont league, and third baseman for Greensboro, has joined the Athletics.

Manager Robinson of Brooklyn C still buying players. With his pitching staff in good shape, he is now looking for out and infielders.

The baseball fans of Boston are said by experts to have a better understanding of the fine points of the national game than those in any other city.

It begins to look as if the Boston Braves, picked by many experts in the spring to land in the first division, will be fortunate to finish out of last place.

The only left-handed catcher to achieve prominence in the major leagues was Clements, who played with Philadelphia for a number of years.

"Chief" Bender, former pitching ace for Connie Mack and now with the Chicago White Sox, has an uncanny ability in detecting the signals of rival teams.

Hank Severed, veteran catcher of the Browns and Senators, has again changed uniforms. He was purchased by the Yankees, who were in need of backstops.

Walter Kinnick, utility infielder, was given his unconditional release by the Phillies. Kinnick was obtained from the Vernon club of the Pacific Coast league in 1924.

A movement is under way to have the rules committee of the major leagues shorten the present pitching distance to 35 feet 6 inches, a reduction of five feet.

The first new player obtained by the Pittsburgh National League baseball club for the 1927 season is the Dan Slag, catcher of Idaho Falls, in the Idaho-Idaho league.

Alexander Holmstrom, owner of the New Orleans Pelicans has a hat that he wears whenever it looks like rain and he doesn't want it to such as on Sundays. It hasn't failed him in 14 years.

Peduch of the Kitty league established a world's record for consecutive games lost by losing 27 successive games. The former record was held by Louisville, they losing 26 games in 1920.

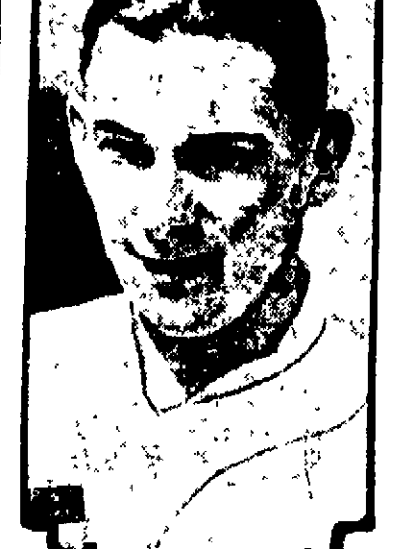

Pitcher Joe Roddy was given his release by Buffalo. For several years Roddy was regarded the best game ball pitcher in the International league, but has suffered from arm trouble the past two seasons.

Mobile has signed Stanley Skupien, a left handed pitcher of Omaha, Neb., who was with the New York Yankees in the International league at one time. He has been playing independent ball in Wisconsin more recently.

Rube Zula, former Carnegie Steel pitcher, has been sent to Springfield of the Eastern league to join the International league. Rube Zula has been playing independent ball in Wisconsin more recently.

A new form of bowling is said to have been introduced in England, the game being marked with white circles surrounding the holes. Points instead of strikes decide the winner.

New $125,000 Star

Fred Shulte, outfielder and leading hitter of the Milwaukee American association baseball club, has been obtained by the St. Louis Browns. Shulte, who has been batting over .400 and who has been valued at $125,000, will report next spring. He is the most expensive player ever bought by a St. Louis club. Charles Robertson and Claude Jernard, pitchers, and Robert Lamotte, infielder, go to Milwaukee in the deal.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Aug. 24 (AP).—Frequent shifts of speculative sentiment characterized today's stock market, which showed a tendency to heaviness, despite repeated efforts to stimulate interest on the long side by bidding up selected rails and specialties. The further increase in brokers' loans last week, coupled with the temporary withdrawal from the market of operators who have been active in recent speculation for the advance, had a dampening effect on bullish enthusiasm.

Repeated bullish demonstrations in General Motors carried the issue up nearly 5 points to 21½, but large offerings appeared on the rail and the stock had cancelled its gain by early afternoon. Persistent liquidation continued in United States Steel common, which sold down 2 points below last night's closing quotations before it began to meet effective support.

Bullish activity in the rails undoubtedly was predicated on the exceedingly favorable character of many of the July earnings reports now being published. The Union Pacific reported net operating income for July of $2,185,196, a gain of $675,129 over the same month last year. While a strong underlying investment demand was apparent for some of the high grade carriers, chief speculative activity centered in the low priced issues, particularly the Seaboard Air Line and Wheeling and Lake Erie.

An extreme break of nine points in United States Steel common probably was influenced by reports that German manufacturers were successful bidders on several recent pipe contracts in this country. Acute weakness also developed in the merchandising issues, particularly Woolworth and Montgomery Ward, which were heavily sold by bear traders.

Quotations given by C. D. Halsey & Co., 27 William street, New York city, branch office, Warren Building, 260-62 Park street, Kingston, N. Y.

GOOD ROADS

BIG CAR USELESS WITHOUT HIGHWAY

"I would rather own and drive a $400 car in a state with good roads, and pay $400 a year to the good-road fund, than to have a $10,000 sedan in a state that had no road system," said a caller at the Minnesota highway department recently. "With a low-price car and good roads I would get somewhere, and get a lot more of comfort and enjoyment than the man with the big limousine and no road."

"Of course," he added, "it is not necessary to go to either extreme. But I think we should always try to maintain the right ratio between road expenditures and car expenditures. We are spending about $30,000,000 for roads in Minnesota this year, and about a billion in the United States as a whole, including state, county, town and municipal road work. That is a lot of money."

"But the people of the United States spent about $4,000,000,000 for new cars and trucks in 1924, $655,000,000 for parts, $675,000,000 for replacement tires, $2,100,000,000 for fuel and lubricants and $910,000,000 for service labor. Add garage storage costs, insurance, registration and gas taxes and other incidentals, and you soon have $10,000,000,000, so that our road cost is only 10 per cent of our total motor bill."

"Ten per cent for road and 90 per cent for rolling stock and operation would make a railroad man laugh out loud. The roads reporting to the Minnesota railroad commission spent $48,237,147 for road betterments and $125,133,087 for equipment in 1924. In 1923, they spent $90,676,362 for road and $108,178,931 for equipment. In 1922 they spent $32,000,010 for road and $37,425,854 for equipment. In other words, 35 per cent of the money they spent for betterments went into the roadbed and 65 per cent into rolling stock and other equipment."

"Or take the operating expenses. The large railroads spent in Minnesota in 1924, $18,377,251 for maintenance of way and structures, $35,356,965 for maintenance of equipment and $52,863,454 for transportation. Here the part spent for maintenance of the road was 18.3 per cent."

"But if you go back to the original investment, the proportion spent for road is much greater. Ten of the large roads on which tentative valuation has been completed by the Interstate Commerce commission have an investment of $416,940,063 in road and permanent structures in Minnesota and $125,334,375 in equipment, or 23.14 per cent for equipment and 76.86 per cent for road."

"With a liberal allowance for depreciation, the $65,719 motor vehicles in Minnesota have a present value of at least $200,000,000. If we had invested $3.33 in 'track' for each dollar invested in 'rolling stock,' as the railroads have, we should have a billion invested in Minnesota roads. That would pave every mile of trunk highway and 26,000 miles of other roads."

"I am ahead of time, I know. But I am just trying to show that our road expenditures, which seem large at first glance, are small in proportion to what we spend for vehicles."

Motorists to Ride High
An elevated highway for automobiles, twenty feet above the street level, is to be built along the western boundary of lower Manhattan Island at a cost of $11,000,000. The road will be sixty-five feet in width and a speed of thirty miles an hour or better will be permitted. The highway is planned as part of a comprehensive scheme for relieving traffic congestion.

Federal-Aid Roads
For the construction of federal-aid roads, a total of $73,125,000 will be distributed among the states for use during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1926. Texas will receive $4,450,917, the largest share for any state. New York with $3,047,106, Pennsylvania with $3,246,720, and Illinois with $3,173,616, follow with the next largest shares.

Good Roads Notes
Roadways into the northern Michigan peninsula have undergone recent improvement.

One hundred and twenty million dollars every year is being spent on new roads in Britain.

The Center Battlefield highway is listed as one of the six best-marked highways in the United States.

The National State Highway authority is planning to use the United States shield in marking the interstate Southern highway in memory of those who died in the service in the World war.

Highway officials in Louisiana announce that a majority of the 200 curves in the road between New Orleans and Baton Rouge will be eliminated in the near future. The highway, which is at present 110 miles in length, will be reduced to 90 miles when the work is completed.

First Roman Enough
As Henry IV of France entered a small French town, the usual salute was not forthcoming. The mayor of the town offered his apology in these terms: "We are old and we are a bit for France. The first is that we have no gun."—The Outlook.

Valentino Said He Would Die Young

Also Said He Wanted to Die Young—Many Pay Tribute to Dead Actor—Brother Coming From Italy—His Mother of Poisoning.

New York, Aug. 24 (AP).—Rudolph Valentino, born Guglielmo, wanted to die young, and today the body of the 31 year old "perfect lover" of the screen lay in an undertakers' parlors, magnet for a crowd that blocked traffic awaiting the arrival from Italy of his brother.

From his native Italy to Los Angeles, capital of film, tributes flowed to the dead actor, who came to America practically penniless, got a job as assistant gardener on the Long Island estate of Cornelius Bliss, Jr., in 1913 and last year earned and spent $1,000,000.

John W. Considine, producer of his pictures, said in Los Angeles "Valentino several times remarked to me 'I shall die young. I know it, and I shall not be sorry. I would hate to live to be an old man.'"

Valentino's Prophecy Fulfilled.
"Valentino's prophecy has been fulfilled, but it has been a terrific blow to his friends. I found Rudolph a man of great courage and unquenchable spirit. He will be greatly missed."

Italian admirers in Los Angeles already have started a movement for funds to erect a monument to him, and Pola Negri, who announced some time ago that she expected to become Valentino's third wife, was prostrated by the news.

Pola Negri Prostrated.
Charles Eytan, a mutual friend of Valentino and the Hungarian actress, declared the wedding date had been set for as soon after January first as their motion picture work would permit. Mrs. Negri telephoned to New York several times during Valentino's illness, and after the death told Eytan, he said, "I have lost not only my dearest friend, but the one real love of my life."

Brother Coming From Italy.
The star's brother, Alberto Guglielmi, is on the way from Italy to give orders as to the disposal of the body, and his attorney and friend Michael Romano, left Chicago last night to take charge of his estate.

Valentino is reported in Los Angeles to have left an estate of $750,000, although Joseph H. Schenck, head of the United Artists Film Corporation, said he left practically nothing. He spent nearly every cent of $1,000,000 he made last year under his contract of $200,000 a picture and one fourth of the producer's gross receipts from his pictures. Mr. Schenck said. Reports that his life was insured for $1,000,000 in favor of Mrs. Schenck were declared erroneous, he was insured for $200,000 in favor of the company.

No Poisoning Charges Yet.
New York, Aug. 24 (AP).—Published reports, stating that Rudolph Valentino had been poisoned, brought from Assistant District Attorney Peters today a statement that his office had received no definite information on the matter and that he would take no action until official proof was presented to him.

Pecora's Statement.
Mr. Pecora's statement follows: "If any responsible party brings up any proof tending to show the commission of any crime the matter will receive the official attention of this office regardless of what it may involve. We are not going off on any rumor or idle gossip that goes around this town. If we did we would have no time for the legitimate affairs of this office."

The death certificate filed yesterday with the board of health gave as the cause of death a ruptured gastric ulcer and general peritonitis, with septic pneumonia and septic endocarditis (an affection of the heart tissues) as contributing causes.

Body Will Lay in State.
The body of Valentino will lay in state from 4 o'clock this afternoon until midnight, and on Wednesday and Thursday from 3 a. m. to midnight, under directions given today by S. George Gilman, his manager.

While hundreds of men, women and children waited outside the Broadway undertaking establishment in the hope of being admitted, the body, dressed in formal evening clothes, was removed to the ornate gold room in the funeral parlors. The body is in a simple bronze casket surrounded by yellow gladioli, and surmounted by a single red rose.

A special squad of policemen was assigned to keep the crowds in order. People gathered in the street before 8 o'clock this morning.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

(By The Associated Press.)

Paris—Skirts are going to be still shorter, in fact so short that fifty embroidered, beaded and laced knee-caps are decreed by fashion.

New York—A war of hoofs is on. Henry Ford's superintendent of Terpuichore is here with two duelmasters, a horn and fiddle to show a convention of dancing masters the beauties of the quadrille and the Virginia reel and there are reports that Mr. and Mrs. Henry are coming themselves. But Ned Wayburn, who turns out stage dancers like Henry does fivers, is producing a few jazz steps that are making the convention take notice.

Alexandria, Bay, N. Y.—As a golfer Irving Berlin is an excellent jazz artist. "I played a terrible game," he said after a round, "just like millions of other duffers say."

New York—Mrs. Peaches Brown is under a physician's care for arduous social duties. She has been ordered to curtail her shopping tours and to retire early.

New Rochelle, N. Y.—A young society motorist, swimmer and golfer is loving, honoring and obeying a motorcycle cop. Peggy Keogh, daughter of a former justice of the state supreme court, was reprimanded by George Gotts for the way she drove her car. And now they are married.

Reno, Nevada—A romance of the hunt is at an end. Raymond Belmont, whose father was a noted figure in the sport of kings and Carolyn Hulbert, used to ride together before they were married at Middleburg, Va., in 1916, now Mrs. Belmont is seeking a divorce.

New York—Anybody who gives Uncle Sam information resulting in seizure of rum boats or the imposition of fines for the smuggling of liquor into port on liners will receive one quarter of the proceeds, it is announced.

Reason for Cold Weather

The naval observatory says while it is true that in the northern hemisphere the maximum difference between the heat lost at night and that gained by day occurs about December 21, it is also true that there is more lost at night than gained by day for some time after that. In other words one might say that the northern hemisphere cools off most rapidly about December 21, but still continues to cool after that time, though more slowly.

Boy Scout Camp Very Successful

Nearly Sixty Boys Enjoyed Month's Vacation at Camp Mikanakawa—Those Who Helped Equip the Camp Extended Thanks.

Scout Executive Smith has finished putting away the equipment used at Camp Mikanakawa. The Boy Scout Camp of Ulster County, located about two miles this side of New Paltz.

There were nearly sixty boys in attendance at the camp which was in operation for one month. The camp was very successful in a number of ways. The second week it reached the limit of its capacity and continued to be filled till the close. Then, too, there was no sickness and no serious accidents. In fact only two boys required the attention of a doctor and these boys remained in camp. There was no shortage of "eats." Plenty of food of the best that could be obtained was supplied. The milk and eggs were procured from the nearby farm house. The camp is especially fortunate in having a driven well which supplies absolutely pure and cold water at all times. The swimming was the best ever. For the benefit of those who were learning, a crib twenty-five feet long, twelve feet wide and three and a half feet deep made from telegraph poles used as floats with board bottom and slat sides was built. This proved not only useful but so popular that the elder boys and better swimmers were requested not to use it. Two checking systems were used by all in going and coming out of the water. Life guards were properly stationed at swimming periods. The management felt the necessity of using every means possible to prevent any accidents. Nearly every boy who could not swim up on arrival at camp was able to do so before leaving.

All agree who have visited the camp that the location is ideal and the space adequate. The Ulster County Council is under great obligation to the Kiwanis Club of Kingston for providing this admirable camp site. The boys enjoyed the visit of a large number of the Kiwanians one Thursday evening and while they offer no apologies for defeating them in a most exciting game of ball they did appreciate and thank the Kiwanians for the large quantity of ice cream they gave the boys. The management is under great obligation to the following who rendered special service or provided necessary equipment: Max L. Reben, who gave a large sized life box; S. J. Messenger, who furnished most of the supplies, and with friends whom he brought out to camp, built and directed the launching and beaching of the swimming crib. A number of men of New Paltz, interested in the camp, furnished the lumber for the crib, assisted in launching it, furnished lumber for the doors of the tents and also came out and cut the weeds and shrubbery around the camp. William F. Miller drew the poles furnished by the Kingston Gas and Electric Co. for building the crib. C. F. Ashley rendered fine service in furnishing the use of his truck for transporting supplies. The boys have not forgotten the delicious watermelon and peaches given by William Freer. The management wishes to thank these and any others who helped make the camp a success.

It is hoped that by next season a permanent lodge may be erected. Such a building is much needed. This and a few other items of equipment would make it an ideal place not only for a Scout Camp but a better place could be found to hold picnics and field days by Sunday schools and other organizations than this which has been provided by the Kiwanis Club of Kingston.

(By The Associated Press.)

New York, Aug. 24 (AP).—Universal Chain Theatres Corporation has acquired the chain of eleven motion picture theatres operated in Milwaukee by the Sullivan Theatres, Inc. This gives the Corporation 234 movie houses throughout the country.

Sales of General Motors cars to overseas dealers in the first half of 1926, increased 52 per cent over the same period of 1925, with a total of 63,737 vehicles. Holders of certificates of deposit representing first mortgage convertible six per cent serial gold bonds of the Meeklenburg Mills Company, have been notified that a plan of readjustment has been adopted by the committee headed by Albert J. Berlinger. The Fidelity Trust Company of New York is depository for bonds and all coupons maturing on and after October 1, 1926.

Last of Aztec Rulers

The Aztecs of Mexico, whose fame is due chiefly to his conflict with the Spanish conqueror, Hernando Cortez. Montezuma had been ruling 17 years in Mexico when the Spaniards arrived. His rule was so weak, however, that the invaders, a mere handful in numbers compared to the native population, soon established themselves securely. Montezuma was taken prisoner, and when the Aztecs could no longer tolerate the overbearing conduct of the Spaniards they called on Montezuma's brother to lead a revolt. While this rebellion was in progress Montezuma died. Some say he was killed by the Spaniards, and the invaders themselves gave out the story that he was killed by a stone hurled by one of the revolters, while he was attempting to quiet them from the room of the palace.

Orchids With Your Bread

The mold you see on unwhipped cheese and deferred bread—did you know it was a flower you look at? We scarcely can notice the mold plant until it blossoms. Under the microscope we then see as rich a display as if they were done in black and white instead of color. The plant proper takes root and spreads a mass of fine filaments deep into its soil before it is ready to send flowering stalks toward the light and air. The seeds, invisible pollen, are shed ductile into the atmosphere, so numerous that you cannot expose a disk of warm retina anywhere for one minute without a dozen spots taking root and sprouting on this superstitious garden plot.—Mentor.

Unhappy Saints

English artists in stained glass have been perturbed by the complaint of the chancellor of the diocese of Chester that ecclesiastical windows do the saints more justice in presenting them holy men wearing beads. Artists in stained glass report that they aspire to present their subjects with as much accuracy as possible, and that history shows most of the saints were beards, especially as they labored in countries where conditions rendered shaving difficult and unusual. Thus, despite protests of the offended churchmen, stained glass windows in churches will in future, as in the past, present views of saints "bearded like the pard."
